Just People

Just People has been around a few years. Our theme? We do what we like. If you want to reduce us to labels, we are a bar, a DJ booth, a dancefloor, a pop-up entertainment show, but we're not just labels, we're Just People. Tired of boots and cats? What about booze and hats. Don't be bored at a bar, come draw at a bar. We are where the only unce unce unce comes from a German Sparkle Party, and where you might get offered a Ham Slam if you ask the right questions. We're a reptile house. We're a star-spangled rodeo. Sometimes we're a 4-minute track of cats meowing. We're the place you start your morning with a mimosa and end your night with an expanded vocabulary. We as a Camp ask the question, Is it fun? If it is, we do it. If it's not, we cover it in liquor and do it anyway.

The Hanged Man is the twelfth Major Arcana card in the tarot deck. He's being punished and he didn't do it, or at least it wasn't entirely his fault. But look at him! He's got it figured out! Giant glowing eyes, gazing into the night like celestial sentinels, You Are Seen transcends the tangible and ventures into the metaphysical. Illuminated in a symphony of iridescence, these eyes respond to the subtlest of sounds, as if attuned to the heartbeat of each burner. Address them, and watch the colors shift in a cosmic dance, reflecting the profound connection between art and observer. In the shadow of the night, these ethereal eyes communicate more than words ever could. They speak a language of acknowledgment, a silent assurance that within their gaze, everyone is seen, recognized, and accepted. Each glance is a nod to the individuality and significance of those who stand before them. But that's not all - the pièce de résistance, our 14-foot by 9-foot illuminated backdrop, The Astral Canvas, stands tall behind our fire circle, weaving a celestial tapestry that transforms the ordinary into the extraordinary. Flames flicker against its iridescent surface, creating a sacred space where the earthly and the cosmic converge. Prepare to be captivated by these celestial eyes, for in their luminescence, they echo the profound truth that every soul wandering the burn is not just a spectator but an integral part of the cosmic spectacle.
